

Access to Home Program

Home adaptations and alterations will be made to enable persons with disabilities to remain in or return to their own homes rather than enter or stay in institutional settings.

This program provides funds to not-for-profit organizations and municipalities to make the homes and apartments of low- and moderate-income New Yorkers with disabilities more accessible.

ACCESS to HOME:

Grants to help low- to moderate-income New Yorkers make their homes accessible.

WHO QUALIFIES?

Renters and homeowners who have a permanent disability or frail elderly persons who have difficulty with daily activities.

Total household income cannot be greater than 80% Area Median Income [120% Area Median Income for service-related disabled veterans]. Ask your local program office for your area's income limits.

- There are no age restrictions for this program.
- Applications can be requested through your Local Program Administrator.

ARE PERSONS WHO ARE FRAIL ELDERLY ELIGIBLE?

Yes, persons who are frail elderly are eligible for Access to Home assistance.

WHAT TYPES OF UPDATES WILL THIS PROGRAM HELP ME WITH?

- Wheelchair ramps, lifts
- Widening of doorways
- Changes to bathroom to allow wheelchair access
- Non-skid flooring
- Appliances that respond to voice commands
- Lowered/Easy-to-reach kitchen adaptations
- Installation of smoke/carbon monoxide/burglar alarms for hearing impaired
