This training is part of the NYS Subprime Foreclosure Prevention Services program, developed to help New York homeowners facing default or foreclosure by providing counseling and legal services. The program is administered by NYS Homes and Community Renewal/Housing Trust Fund Corporation. The program makes grants available to nonprofits to provide financial counseling, mediation, legal representation, negotiation, and other support services to borrowers who face default or foreclosure. Additionally, the Program provides training and support for housing counselors, mediators and lawyers who are assisting residents with subprime or unconventional mortgages. Information on the program can be found at www.nyshcr.org. The Homes and Community Renewal/Housing Trust Fund Corporation is responsible for the supervision, maintenance and development of affordable low- and moderate-income housing in New York State.
