REALTOR & LENDER TIP OF THE WEEK

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SONYMA COMPLIANCE INCOME AND CREDIT QUALIFYING INCOME?

SONYMA IRS Compliance Income and Credit Qualifying Income are two separate and distinct calculations:

IRS Compliance Income is the income used to determine if a household (persons occupying the subject property) meets IRS-imposed requirements and is "eligible" for SONYMA financing based upon the county, program, number of occupants and applicable Income Limits. It is the combined income of all household members age 18 or older. This income includes overtime; bonuses; alimony; child support and other recurring income. See pages 7-10 of the Submission of Pre-Closing Application Files Training Module, dated August 2012 to determine other sources of income to include or allowable exemptions. Compliance income is entered on Lender Online when reserving a loan and on the Recapture Notification and Mortgagor's Affidavit (Form 211). It is also entered on the SONYMA Loan Transmittal when submitting a pre-closing loan file to SONYMA.

Credit Qualifying Income is the "underwriting" income used to determine housing and debt- to- income ratios and is based on our income underwriting guidelines as stated in the SONYMA Credit & Property Underwriting Notes found on the Loan Officer page of our website. This income is entered on the 1003, 1008 and if applicable, DU/LP.
